

DRILLING/COMPLETIONS ENGINEER

Saturn Oil + Gas Inc. is a publicly-traded, light and heavy oil company with a proven track record of growing production and creating significant value through acquisition, exploration and development. Since inception in 2017, the Saturn team has been successfully developing there light and heavy oil assets in west-central Saskatchewan.

Saturn is currently accepting applications for a Drilling and/or Completions Engineer located at the corporate headquarters in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. Ideally, this candidate will have experience in both drilling and completions operations however one or the other discipline will be considered.

Position: Full-time Employee

Salary: $75,000 - $100,000

This position will report directly to the Chief Operating Officer. This position will be responsible for:

- To accurately design and plan programs in accordance with sound engineering practices for D&C operations.
- To prepare cost estimates to meet or exceed budget expectations.
- To work with all service providers to create value through safe work procedures, cost effect operations, and service-oriented support.
- To ensure operations are compliant with all environment and safety laws, regulations, and Saturn's policies.
- To provide leadership and communicate to Executives in developing an execution plan.
- To review and research Saturn offset information and peer group performance related to new technologies and industry trends to support best in class operations.
- To provide direct supervision of all field operations.
- To make sound operational decisions with support from senior advisors when required.
- To be available after hours and weekends in support of 24/7 operations.
- To track all costs daily to the end of the project to support the accrual process for cost control.
- To ensure that all operations, which includes all service providers, are in compliance with corporate policies and regulatory requirements.
- To identify and implement operations performance improvement opportunities.
- To be willing to travel throughout Saskatchewan for rig visits as required to support safety and operations audits.
- To train and mentor junior staff as required.

The ideal candidate will possess the following skills and qualifications:

- Willingness to re-locate to Saskatoon corporate headquarters.
- Minimum of 5 years of progressive experience in drilling and completions operations which includes horizontal drilling and multi-stage fracturing.
- Minimum of a Grade 12 High School diploma but preferably post-secondary education in Petroleum Technology or University Degree in Engineering.
- Eagerness to contribute as a member of a technical operations group.
- Excellent time management skills and the desire to work in a dynamic team environment.
- Self-motivated and pro-active approach to managing tasks with sharp attention to detail.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills with a professional and positive attitude.
- Ability to develop working relationships with corporate and field staff including service providers.
- Excellent computer skills.

If you are a qualified candidate and interested in this opportunity, please send your resume in confidence to the following;

Email: careers@saturnoil.com

All applications will be treated with discretion. We thank you for your interest, however, only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.